who will promptly adjust their claims with the Government.

Col. Chas. D. Pennebaker, Military Agent of Kentucky soldiers free of charge. He is prepared to furnish blank forms of all descriptions upon application, and will cheerfully give information as to the proper manner of mrking out accounts. By applying to him the soldier will save both time and money; for his officer at Washington (18), his dash in communication with the Disbursing and Additing Departments, which enables him at once to remedy an deficiency that may arise in their claims. Local Cham Agents, of course, expect compensation for their time and labor, and the soldier, by employing a remote medium of communication with the Departments at Washington, necessarily attended with defay.

The Stale has also employed Local Agents at Louisville, Ky., Col., John W., Ganlt and Col. W. He B. Morrill, who will cheerfully render information and assistance to soldiers having claims due the by the Government, foce of charge.

The U.S. Sainting Commission, which has been the constant friend of the soldier throughout the pebellion, has established a Claim Agency at Washington, with Local Agents through the different States, and they carnestly invite all soldiers to cafile to their Agents the collection and set General to their accounts free of charge.

PROSPECTUS

TURF, FIELD, AND FARM.

DELIEVING THAT THE INTERESTS OF THE American people demand a First Class Weekly Journal devoted exclusively to the Sports of the Turf and hold, and to Agricultural and Literary Pursuits, we have made arrangements to put his such a paper. With the return of peace to our land, war and its exciting issues will no longer eneross the attention and form the chief topic of discussion. The people will return with new vigor to the sports of the hield and Turf, to the breeding of fine slock, and to the developement of the resources of the country. The want of a Journal devoted to the best interests.

The people will return with new vigor to the sports of the brield and Turf, to the breeding of fine stock, and to the developement of the resources of the country. The want of a Jonath of the resources of the country. The want of a Jonath of the breeding of the whole country was never as severely felt as now. To supply this want, we propose to establish the TIRF FIELD, AND FARM.

We embark in an enterprise requiring much labor and expense of the whole country and the publishing a First Class Sport in an enterprise requiring much labor not expense of the total states. It shall be out carnest endeavor to publishing a First Class Sport in an enterprise requiring a first class of the publishing a first class of the state of the publishing a first class of the state of the state of the publishing a first class of the state of the publishing a first class of the state of the publishing and reader and the engage in heated discussions. The Turf will receive especial attention, and it will form one of the leading leatures of the paper. We have made arrangements to seem correspondents from early State which takes pride in encouraging this active point. The breeding and raising of fine stock will also receive especial attention. The horse, the noblest of the animal creation, for years has been our study, and weare prepared to treat the subject in a nature that will challenge the criticism of the public.

OF THE MAYSVILLE WEEKLY BULLETIN.

The proprietors of the Mayavilla Bulletin have adopted this method of communicating with their distant friends, as a means by which to draw the alfairs of the paper more directly to their attention. It is presumed that every Democrat to whom the Bulletin has been a faithful visitant, will not only take an interest, but a pleasure in advancing its prosperity. The Democracy of Kentucky are noted for the liberal patronago which they have, in times past, extended to the various organs and instruments of the party. Five years ago, when our political prestige was greater than that of any uther organization in the country, there were at least twenty plain, old fashioned Domocratic papers in the State, and all drawing a good sustenance from the party. To-day, in all the strele of our Keatucky exchanges, we are unable to point out a single, straight-forward Benneratic advecate, and, except the Bulletin, we are not aware that there is any such paper in the State, in view of this fact, our own interest, as well as that of the party, has prompted this effort to extend the influence of the paper from one end of the State to the other. Our first and greatest desire is to keep up the old party organization in its purity, wooding all extraneous influences or coaditions whatever. The entire South will be united under the standard of Democraey. No other party can exist there at present, and we trust never hereafter; so we deem it of the very first importance to unite and prepare the libe Denne ra's of Kenfacky for the coming contest. We must be the great link between the Denneracy of the North and the Democraey of the South, and by our strong and vigorous action show to our kindred on both sides that our hearts are in the cause. The prospect for success was never more promising, for, while all other parties are sectional, conceived in passion and born in fury, our organization extends over the entire republic, and the Northern Democrat and the Southern can strike hands in commendates over the entire republic, and the Northern De
